

Appendix E

Ranked Opportunities to Preserve and Promote Agriculture

RANKED

- Extension Service 5 Dots
- Sliding Scale Zoning 4 Dots
- Revision of the comprehensive plan 4 Dots
- The Agricultural Task Force 4 Dots
- Other supportive groups/agencies to partner with 2 Dots
- New ag industries create new ag businesses 1 Dot
- Educational institutions 1 Dot
- Economic vitality of ag helps economic vitality of others (banks, etc.) 1 Dot
- Keep county costs lower with the lower infrastructure and service needs of agriculture 1 Dot

UN-RANKED

- Our new neighbors—are they a market?
- Become a price maker vs. a price taker
- Different nationalities moving in may want a product that we can grow/raise
- How can state provide information, support and help?
- Move ag land use to continued ag land use
- Using groups like 4-H and Valley VoTech to education youth; bring ag into the classroom
- Training opportunities at VVTC and BRCC leading to more labor
- Education the public
- Host State farm show, state ag events to bring people to the area
- Forums/conferences